Autistic Pride Event

21st June 2024, afternoon

Homerton University Hospital Education centre

Autistic pride day is on 18th June.

Last year we hosted our first ever coproduced autistic pride event, promoting autism acceptance and celebrating autistic people from our community. It was a big success so we are hosting it again this year and we need your help!

We are looking for autistic people to be a part of the event. If you would like to share a piece of artwork, showcase a talent, talk about your interests or share anything that celebrates being autistic, then get in touch with us by 17th May 2024, by email: jody.barrientos@nhs.net or call/text/wassapp: 07917 856 551

You can receive a voucher for taking part in the event.

STORMONT HOUSE SCHOOL MATTERS

Our key stage 4 Gardeners have been busy in Expressive Arts this year.

Since November we have planted over 200 spring bulbs - tulips, narcissi and hyacinths, in the raised beds.

Thank you to all who have helped to dig and plant. Especially those members of Year 12 who have done a great job with weeding as well as planting forget-me-nots, anemonies and peonies. We look forward to our lettuce seedlings producing fine crop too.
