STORMONT HOUSE SCHOOL

MOBILE PHONE POLICY

PARENT INFORMATION

During the School Day

Phones must be switched off for silent and stored safely in school lockboxes when students arrive at school.

Learning Comes First

By removing phone use during the school day, students can:

- Focus on learning
- Improve communication and social skills
- Build positive relationships with peers
- Stay engaged in classroom activities
- Reduce distractions and anxiety

Keeping Students Safe

Our policy also helps protect students from:

- Online risks and inappropriate content
- Unwanted photographs or videos
- Social media conflicts during the school day
- Distractions that may affect wellbeing

Supporting Independence

As part of preparing students for adulthood, we teach young people how to:

- Use technology responsibly
- Stay safe online
- Communicate respectfully with others
- Balance screen time and real-life activities
- Make sensible choices about digital technology

You can support your child by:

- ✓ Speaking positively about the school's mobile phone expectations
- ✓ Encouraging healthy screen-time habits at home
- ✓ Discussing online safety regularly
