WORLD AUTISM ACCEPTANCE

In 2025, the theme is: “Celebrate Differences.” This means that this year, Autism Acceptance Month is dedicated to celebrating the differences in Autistic people to foster a greater sense of inclusivity.

At Stormont, the Speech and Language Therapists had a lunch time stall with activities to mark this event. We had a variety of activities including a chance for students to add their ideas to a giant emotional regulation toolkit for the school.

For more information about World Autism Acceptance, check out the National Autistic Society:
