

Governor	Category	Appointed / Elected by	Term of office review date	Committees / responsibilities	Registered interests
Kevin McDonnell	Headteacher	n/a	n/a	Resources Committee, Teaching and Learning Committee	None
Bernard Hawes Chairperson	Co-opted Governor since Sept. 2015	Governing Body		Chairperson of Governing Body and Resources Committee, Performance Reviews. Teaching and Learning Committee	None
	Bernard has been a governor at Stormont House School for over 15 years, originally as a Community Governor but since the reconstitution of the Governing Body in September 2015, as a Co-opted Governor. As Chair of Governors for most of that time he has been part of the team that has seen the school achieve 3 outstanding Ofsted's. He currently chairs the Resources Committee (Finance, Human Resources and Premises). As a trustee of the Kench Hill Charity he is an avid supporter of the Hackney residential centre located in Tenterden, Kent and all that it offers and gives to the inner city children of Hackney. Having served on the Hackney Schools Forum for several years and other Governor and Head-teacher groups within the Hackney Learning Trust he has a wide understanding of school governance and the role and responsibilities of a Governing Body. After a long career in finance he now enjoys a busy life participating in many outdoor activities and grandparent responsibilities. Notwithstanding these a passion to ensure Stormont House School continues to be best in class and that all students achieve at the highest levels as individuals is at the centre of his commitment to the school.
Lynn Dalton	Co-opted Governor since Sept. 2015	Governing Body		Vice Chairperson of Governing Body Chairperson of Teaching and Learning Committee	None
	Lynn has been a governor at Stormont House for over 12 years. She is currently Vice Chair of Governors and Chair of the Teaching and Learning Committee, although she will be stepping down from these roles in 2021. Lynn's background is in education and she taught in the East End of London for over 30 years, most recently as Deputy Head at Clapton Girls' Academy in Hackney. Lynn was seconded from Clapton to Linklaters (a city based global law firm) in 2007 to set up a 'Realising Aspirations' community investment strategy which focused on raising achievement and aspirations for young people in Hackney. This award-winning programme has now been introduced as part of the global strategy for Linklaters. While remaining part of the Corporate Responsibility Team at Linklaters, Lynn is now semi-retired although she retains responsibility for the firm's Work Experience programmes for Hackney and, since 2016, for Haringey. Lynn also worked during her secondment to Linklaters for Inspire Education Business Partnership, where she was involved in delivery of Primary Mentoring schemes for city companies and Hackney schools. Lynn has been a Magistrate on the North East London Judiciary Panel for 5 years and is now also on the bench of the East London Family Courts. In addition, she regularly volunteers for business and enterprise events in local schools.
Beatrice Andrews	LA Governor	Governing Body		Resources Committee	None

Dorothy Hodgson	Co-Opted Governor since March 2018	Governing Body		Teaching and Learning Committee	None
Claire Napier	Staff Governor since March 2018	Staff at SHS	March 2022	Resources Committee	Employed at SHS
Katie Foster	Observer Deputy Headteacher	No voting rights			Employed at SHS
Frances Jessie	Observer Deputy Headteacher	No voting rights			Employed at SHS
Grainne Hylton	Business Manager	No voting rights			Employed at SHS
Rhiannon Eglin	Co-Opted Governor since October 2020	Governing Body		Teaching and Learning Committee	None
	Rhiannon has been a Governor at Stormont House for a year. She is a qualified SENCo (Special Educational Needs Co-Ordinator) and has been teaching young people with additional needs in East London Schools for 12 years. She works as a Specialist Teacher for the Inclusion Team at Hackney Education. In this role, Rhiannon offers advice, guidance and training on inclusion to schools. She is involved in the development of a new project Education Youth Inclusion Team (EYIT) which will help champion inclusion in Hackney's schools. Rhiannon is very committed to making sure all young people have a positive, enjoyable and inclusive educational experience. In addition, she is a keen Musician and in her spare time she runs music and film events for the community. Rhiannon will take over the role of Chair of the Teaching and Learning Committee in 2021.
Fiona Crossland	Observer Deputy Headteacher (Maternity Leave)	No voting rights			Employed at SHS
Dayo Okewale	Observer Governor since December 2020	Governing Body		Teaching and Learning Committee	None
	Dayo Okewale is a recently appointed Governor. He is an internationally recognized leader, equal justice advocate, public speaker, and entrepreneur, who leverages the influence of government and business to combat some of the world's greatest social issues. Dayo currently works as a chief of staff in the House of Lords (UK government), providing political, diplomatic, and strategic insight to Crossbench Peers. As such, Dayo uses his life and professional experiences, and unique perspective to add irrefutable value to the House. Additionally, Dayo is co-chair of Equal Justice for NEXUS Global. NEXUS is a global community founded to bridge communities of wealth, philanthropy, and social entrepreneurship. With over 5000 Members from 70 countries, they work to unite next generation families, UHNW individuals, philanthropists, young investors, social entrepreneurs, and allies to catalyse new leadership and accelerate needed political, societal, indigenous, financial,

	environmental, and equal justice solutions. Dayo is also part of the UNESCO Human Rights Global Integration forum alumni and leadership programme, having served on the UNESCO board and having published articles on human rights, sports for development and eradicating poverty. Dayo Okewale founded Who’s Got Game Sport in 2008, a not-for-profit organisation which specialises in using sport as a tool to create young global leaders and empower young people to develop employability and business enterprise skills. As a former professional basketball player, Dayo believes sport is an underused medium for teaching and instilling life and social skills, and he is passionate about promoting the use of sport as a tool for education and change.
Governors who have left in the last year:
Hannah Lilley	Co-opted Governor since November 2016	Governing Body	November 2020	No longer a governor	n/a