Three weeks of live lessons complete!

Congratulations on three weeks of live lessons and making it to half term!! We hope you all get a well deserved rest next week and have enjoyed some time outside in the snow over the past week!

Please continue to send in photos of work and acitvities – we are all loving seeing these!

7Mu	Devontae	For being a role model with his remote learning, reading for the class and sharing amazing work.
7Mo	Olivia	For being excellent at taking part in Teams calls and working hard in all her lessons!
8E	Leon	he has been on time and attending all lessons and tutor times without fail and though usually quiet in class, on teams he has been super engaged, answering questions and completing assignments.
8N	Lewis	He has started speaking in some of the lessons, and even occasionally turning the camera on, which is a big step and he always does his work.
9C	Zamar	For excellent participation in our music lesson this week. He used a yellow spade as his violin and a pencil as a bow. He even gave a bow at the end. It really made us smile.
9A	Stanley	He has been extremely consistent with coming on Teams and always tries his best. Well done Stanley.
10B	Joel	He continues to demonstrate fantastic effort in his virtual learning and regularly shares with staff areas where he needs more support. Joel is always ready to learn and the teaching team are very proud of his online work ethic. Well deserved!
100	Parris	She has shown eagerness to learn and has used all the required rools on Teams to participate. Well done!
11G	Nguze	For attending all his lessons and meetings and completing wonderful work.
11M	Humza	He has made excellent progress in her digital proficiency and independent learning.
12H	Max	For his engagement in all lessons and remarkable punctuality for all the meetings.
		Have a nice day ahead.
12M	Bedirhan	For doing so much extra-curricular activities such as cycling, cooking, playing the piano and going to see the horses at Lea Valley!
