Jack Petchey

November Winner 2014

Finley Y8 was nominated for the November Jack Petchey Award, for working hard to improve all aspects of his social interaction. He talks happily and engagingly and is confident when speaking in front of an audience.

Finley also works hard with reading and writing. He hates to see any one misbehave or get into trouble when they are not at fault and is strong-minded enough to stand up for what is right and fair.

Finley is a strong member of the school council and always voices his forms and opinions on school issues. He takes on board this responsibility and works hard to represent his class.

In conclusion Finley is a very public spirited young man who is very well behaved and sets such a good example to others.

Well Done Finley

Year 8 Curriculum Trips

This week year 8 have been on two curriculum trips. On Tuesday they visited the Museum of London to watch A Christmas Carol. They watched as Scrooge turned from mean to kind and they had to join in with some of the scenes. Victoria in 8D said, "I liked being one of the Victorian children in the play" 8C and 8D thought Scrooge was a bit scary at the beginning of the play but he was nice by the end.

Scenes from the Play A Christmas Carol

On Thursday year 8 travelled on a boat along the River Thames from Tower Hill to Greenwich. They saw the tidal river flowing out and back in and looked how the river meanders. Everyone learnt that the river is mixed with sand and mud. It's not just dirty!
