Woodrow High House - Year 7 Residential

On Monday 12 May Year 7 left Stormont House School for Woodrow High House, near Amersham in Buckinghamshire for their 3 day residential. They were accompanied by Ms Motin, Ms Chenard, Ms Clements, Mr Wilkes and Mr Addy. During their stay they did a number of activities which included orienteering, djembe jam, team exercises, parachute games, swimming, pond dipping, mini beast hunt, rocket building, wacky races, camp fire and disco. The pupils thoroughly enjoyed their residential and made sure that they got the most out of their time with their friends. When they returned on Wednesday 14 May 2014 the pupils were very tired but extremely happy.
